Conspiracy Theories in the Time of Covid-19

Clare Birchall, King's College London, UK and Peter Knight, Department of American Studies, University of Manchester

Series: Conspiracy Theories

Conspiracy Theories in the Time of Covid-19 provides a wide-ranging analysis of the emergence and development of conspiracy theories during the Covid-19 pandemic, with a focus on the US and the UK. The book combines digital methods analysis of large datasets assembled from social media with politically and culturally contextualised close readings informed by cultural studies. This book will appeal to anyone interested in conspiracy theories, misinformation, culture wars, social media, and contemporary society.
